The Honorable Edward I. Koch
Mayor of the City of New York
City Hall
New York, New York 10007

Dear Ed:

I was so pleased to see that picture of you and the Governor and Mr. Wagner announcing Stuyvesant's new high school. I was very sorry indeed that I could not be there myself but I had really pressing business in Washington that kept me away. Stuyvesant represents the best that New York City has stood for over the generations: I have called it an engine of mobility and it is thrilling to see that it continues to function in that important role for one important group of our young citizens after another.

My congratulations to you for your interest and support.

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
